Dr Fiona Heaton

MB BCHir BSc(hons) MRCGP

---

I studied medicine at the University of St. Andrews and Magdalene College Cambridge, qualifying in 2002. I then worked in hospital medicine for the next 4 years in Adult medicine, Medicine for the Elderly, General Surgery, Accident & Emergency, Orthopaedics, Paediatrics and Obstetrics & Gynaecology. I trained as a GP in Kelso, in the Scottish Borders. I have worked as both a GP Retainer and a Freelance GP in Hampshire.

I have special interests in Medicine for the Elderly and Palliative Care. I have worked as the lead GP in a NHS Continuing Care Unit, providing specialist care for elderly patients, palliative care patients and patients with progressive chronic disease.

---

I am married with two young children. As a family we enjoy a range of outdoor pursuits including regular weekend rambles on the South Downs. Having represented County, Town and University at both badminton and golf, I continue to enjoy many sports. I enjoy both classical and contemporary music and hope in the future to learn to play the piano.
