

The Freelance GP you are seeing today is

Dr Jeremy Sims

MB BS MSc MRCGP

I qualified in 1995 at Charing Cross & Westminster Medical School, University of London. I then had junior doctor posts on the south coast and completed GP training in Portsmouth, qualifying in 2002. I have worked as a GP partner and as a salaried doctor.

I am interested in Psychiatry, preventive medicine and medical research.

I am married to Dana and we have two young boys, Sebastian and Oliver. My interests include British history, supporting Swindon Town FC, keeping fit on my exercise bike in the conservatory (so that I can keep up with my eldest son's energetics), and living the simple life in my garden.

This appointment is for 10 minutes unless otherwise arranged

Dr Sims is a member of Pallant Medical Chambers. Our members meet regularly to improve their quality of care using feedback, education and peer/professional support.
